Sunrise Triangle Honors a "Soon-To-Be" Mommy! Baldwin, NY

Our newly installed Deputy State Director, Mrs. Turri, is a Past Beloved Queen of Sunrise Triangle. Mrs. Turri announced to the Sunrise girls that they would be getting a new addition to the Sunrise Family soon!

After the announcement about the baby and her installation as Deputy State Director, the girls decided to honor Mrs. Turri with a degree during their meeting, and a surprise Baby Shower for collation. The girls wrote and planned the degree on their own and with the help of some cooking and shopping from the supervisors, put together a beautiful baby shower!

*"The great news at Leadership started it off right. We're happy to celebrate a soon to be mommy tonight!
Last month we heard of another surprise!
A Deputy State Director from Sunrise!"*

*So tonight we'd like to congratulate,
A finer American woman of the state!
We know it will be difficult as a mommy-to-be, but we know you'll be great,
we can guarantee.
Here's a bag of goodies where you will find,
A whole lot of love, with you in mind.
You should know babies always make stinky little messes, so you must pack loads of diapers with your own gowns and dresses!
On long road trips you should bring,
Bottles, and blankets, and teething rings.
Scottish Rite, Grand Lodge, and Royal Arch, all of these official visits will be starting in March!
Pop in a pacifier if Waffle's a crier,
Hopefully baby will stop by the time you retire!
If you ever need a night out, no need to stall. 15 plus girls, just give us a call!
Running around the state with Matt & Lou, your boys will make sure you are never blue.
We know you'll want to satisfy all your weird food cravings, but we hope you can wait a little for our special after meeting collation!
If it's a girl, Sunrise will gain a cute little sister, and if it's a boy, us girls will adore this dapper little mister.
Before baby and after, we will always have your back, so love from Sunrise will be something you never lack!"*

Great job, Sunrise! And congratulations, Mrs. Turri!

During her speech she shared a "Masonic Fairy Tale" of a young girl who had no known Masonic background but through her involvement in one of the youth groups, she gained a whole Masonic Family.

Triangle was well represented by other past members and advisors. It also brought out support of the other youth groups, both past and present. Active DeMolay, Michael Jordan, performed the Flower Talk which impressed all in attendance.

The evening was a true homage to the ties between the adult and youth groups and represented the new Worthy Matron's "Best of Both Worlds" theme well. (Fun fact: Erika's State Rep theme also involved a globe mascot - "Hug the World")
